

The Triple Scoop

2nd/3rd/4th Grade

May 10, 2009
4th Quarter

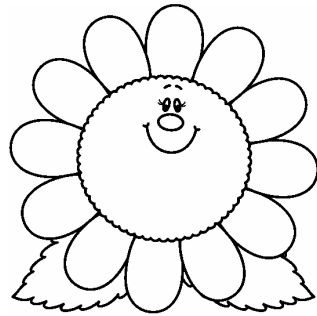

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." -Matthew 19:14

Mrs. Meyer
Phone # - 763-262-0834
E-mail—Elizabeth.Meyer1@cune.org

Spelling List 2nd Grade

1. ant
2. plan
3. than
4. stand
5. trip
6. milk
7. shop
8. drop
9. stop
10. spot
11. much
12. shut

Bonus Words
brand robbers skip plots

Memory Verse

10th Commandment
You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor. What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not entice or force away our neighbor's wife, workers, or animals, or turn them against him, but urge them to stay and do their duty.
Needs to be said Friday morning.

Spelling List 3rd Grade

1. mail
2. raining
3. airport
4. friend
5. tried
6. myself
7. flying
8. fishing
9. wished
10. milking
11. walking
12. loving
13. using
14. useful
15. Indian
16. family

Bonus Words
dying
mules
oven cubes pliers

Spelling List 4th Grade

1. color
2. among
3. another
4. anybody
5. follow
6. gotten
7. October
8. orange
9. beat
10. means
11. reader
12. season
13. leaving
14. nearest
15. ray
16. May
17. playmate
18. always
19. sank
20. fallen

Bonus Words
raiders
country hailed pioneers beneath

Special Highlights . . .

- Hope all you wonderful mother's had a very special day yesterday!
- PTA meeting this Tuesday after school.
- Track and Field is this week. 3rd/4th Graders will go on Friday and 2nd graders will go on Thursday. Please make sure to get your permission slips turned in.

- Social Studies quiz over Laura Ingalls Wilder on Wednesday.
- Our next SCRIP order is Tuesday, May 18.
- Spelling City = Unit 32

Family Devotions

A Gift For Mother

Bible Reading of the Day: Colossians 3:20-25

Daniel walked out the door, plopped down on the top step, and scowled. His sister Nan found him there. "Tomorrow is Mother's Day, and we don't have a gift for Mom yet," she said. "Let's go see what we can find."

"Can't," Daniel said crossly. "Mom says I can't leave the yard. I didn't clean my closet right away like she told me to, but when I did do it, she still wasn't satisfied. I told her it was my closet and it looked fine to me, so it oughta suit her, too!"

"Daniel!" gasped Nan.

"She said I was rude and told me to do it over," grumbled Daniel.

"So did you?" asked Nan.

"Sure, and when I got done, I even asked if it suited her now," replied Daniel. "She said my closet did, but not my attitude, so I have to stay home today."

"Oh, Daniel," moaned Nan, "you spoiled everything." She sighed. "Maybe if I ask her, she'll let you go to the store with me."

Nan went in and made her request, but when Mom said no, Nan became angry and talked back to her mother. As a result, she was grounded, too!

After dinner the next day, Daniel and Nan felt bad about not having a gift for their mother. "We wanted to get you something yesterday," explained Nan, "but you wouldn't let us go to the store, Mom."

Dad raised his brows. "So it's Mom's fault that you don't have a present for her?"

"N-no," admitted Daniel.

"Tell me why you would give Mom a present," said Dad.

"Because it's Mother's Day, and . . . and to show that we love her," said Nan.

"So what's the best way to show your love?" Dad asked.

"Well . . . um . . . giving presents and stuff is one way," stammered Daniel.

"We also show people we love them by the way we act toward them," said Nan slowly. After a moment she added, "Yesterday, we didn't act like we loved you, Mom. I'm sorry I talked back-honest I am!"

"Me, too, Mom," echoed Daniel. "And I'm sorry I didn't obey you right away."

"I forgive you, kids," said Mom. "From now on, you can give me 'presents' all the time by obeying, okay?" Solemnly, Nan and Daniel nodded.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Do you tell your parents that you love them-not only by words, but especially by quick and cheerful obedience? Or do you whine and complain, and sometimes even talk back? Ask God right now to help you show your love daily by the way you act.

TODAY'S KEY VERSE:

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Ephesians 6:1

Taken from www.cbhministries.org